MEET PAULA

After Paula's husband was incarcerated, she and her children were forced to live in their car. Although the family qualified for federal housing benefits, they couldn't afford the rent. Sunrise quickly paid the family's move-in expenses & negotiated with the landlord for a Thanksgiving move-in date just a few days later.

MEET ANNA

Anna experienced housing instability since 18, staying in a shelter & then with family. Facing unsafe conditions, she sought help from Sunrise's Hotline. Sunrise helped Anna connect with a friend in a nearby city and secure a safe place to stay with their family. Sunrise covered her bus ticket, & within 24 hours, Anna found a new home with a support system.
